GO DEEPER

If God is Good, Why is There Mental Illness?

» Read Romans 8:18-25. Underline every word about groaning and every word about hope. Notice that they sit side by side.

PRAYER

Dear Jesus,

Thank you that we can bring our problems to you, there is nothing too hard for you. Sometimes our burdens just seem too much, and we can struggle with knowing that you are good or that you even love us. Help us to remember in those hard times the truth from your bible about who you say your are. You are good, you do love us, we can see this most clearly in the gospel. Help us tonight as we lay our heads down on our pillows to rest peacefully, give us good sleep. We trust you God and we thank you that one day you will make everything right.

Amen.
